

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

INTERACTIVE SESSION ON PRIVATE SECTOR NDC ENGAGEMENT: Guidelines and instructions

Natcha Tulyasuwan, PhD

Climate Action for Agriculture in Asia

October 10-12, 2017, Bangkok

USAID-funded CEADIR Activity

This presentation is an output of the USAID-funded Climate Economic Analysis for Development, Investment and Resilience (CEADIR) Activity. The views expressed do not necessarily reflect the views of USAID or the United States Government.

OBJECTIVE AND EXPECTED OUTPUT

OBJECTIVE

To identify country-specific needs and opportunities for public-private sector coordination to leverage public finance to accelerate private investment for CSA

Photo credit: Tropical Forest Alliance 2020

EXPECTED OUTPUT

At least 2 top country-specific challenges and corresponding recommended priority actions by key entities within the implementation timeframe identified in alignment with pre 2020 roadmap and NDC targets

SESSION FORMAT

5
min

Introduction to session

20
min

Group discussion on challenges

40
min

Group discussion on priority actions

10
min

Summarizing key discussion and submitting the template

KEY QUESTIONS

CHALLENGES

- What are the top challenges in communication or coordination with the private sector related to advancing climate-smart agriculture or forestry or promoting private sector investment to help achieve NDC targets?
- Which types of private sector organization and/or commodities are relevant to the identified challenge?

PRIORITY ACTIONS

ACTION

- What are some priority actions needed to address these challenges?

LEAD & SUPPORT ENTITY

- Who are the key entities are most appropriate to lead and support the implementation of these priority actions?

TIMELINE

- What should be the timeframe for implementation of these actions?